

Hi, I'm João 🙋

Product Designer based in Portugal. Working remotely for a proptech startup and open to freelance work.

Work

Senior Product Designer at PriceHubble

Remote, May 2019 - present

At PriceHubble I'm responsible for redesigning the look and feel of the product, creating and maintaining our design system, and iterating our product with new exciting features.

Senior Product Designer at New Relic

Barcelona, Aug 2018 - May 2019

At New Relic I worked on workflows, concepts and UI mockups for Cloud monitoring tools from Amazon, Google, and Microsoft.

Senior User Interface Designer at XING

Barcelona, Apr 2015 - Aug 2018

My role was focused on interaction and UI for many B2B recruiting tools. I owned overarching UX projects, including the creation and maintenance of a design system.

Founding Product Designer at TravelPerk

Barcelona, Jan 2015 - Apr 2015

I was invited by the co-founder of TravelPerk to join the founding team and create the first user workflows, wireframes and UI mockups.

User Experience Designer at Booking

Barcelona, Aug 2014 - Nov 2014

I worked on the B2B Booking Suite and my role was to groom features with the PO, prepare and conduct user interviews, create wireframes and design UI mockups for new features.

User Experience Designer at Log

Lisbon, Sep 2013 - Aug 2014

As a consultant for multiple clients at Log, I conducted user interviews, designed wireframes, UI mockups and prototypes.
